

www.stkitts-tourism.com

40 Reasons to Visit St. Kitts & Nevis...

1. The opportunity to enjoy a twin island holiday experience like no other. The opportunity to be a participant and revel in the notion that you belong here...because you do.
2. Each island experience is different, yet complementary. St. Kitts, a vibrant and compelling atmosphere. Nevis, quiet, laid back, an island that casts its spell on you.
3. The islands are just small enough to make the exploration of each, easy!
4. The St. Kitts Scenic Railway offers a 'one of a kind' unique way to view the island of St. Kitts.
5. The locals are laid back and incredibly friendly. They enjoy 'liming' with visitors.
6. The country's rich cultural heritage has been influenced by its native people the Amerindians, and also by African, British, French and Spanish inhabitants.
7. Over 200 heritage sites have been documented on St. Kitts alone.
8. On St. Kitts, 30 of its heritage sights have been designated as being of primary hemispheric importance.
9. Brimstone Hill Fortress and National Park is a UNESCO World Heritage Site.
10. Built over a period of 104 years, beginning in 1690, British Authorities consider the Brimstone Hill Fortress to be one of the finest pieces of British Military architecture in the world.
11. A volcano safari experience on St. Kitts is a rugged hiking adventure that offers unparalleled scenic views.
12. The popular West Indian lunch buffet served at Rawlins Plantation Inn is prepared with a care and imagination that is matched only by the excellence of the fresh produce gathered from the plantation's garden, nearby farmers and local fishermen.
13. A visit to the extensive wine cellar at Coconut Grove restaurant and Wine Lounge on Nevis is a must for every wine enthusiast.
14. Enjoy a night out visiting at least 7 beach bars on the South Frigate Bay Beach strip.
15. Play 18 holes on a Robert Trent Jones II Championship Golf Course while you enjoy dramatic views of the Four Seasons Resort, the Caribbean Sea, the foothills of Mount Nevis, and sister island St. Kitts.

16. Herbert Heights on Nevis takes you on a historical adventure along the exact trail once used by the slaves on their way to the maroons.
17. At the Golden Rock Hotel, cocktails are served from the bar in a barrel vaulted building. A ringing bell signals guests to a candlelight dinner in the castle-like dining room.
18. Divers and snorkelers will be delighted by the warm clear waters, colourful coral reef formations and fascinating wrecks. A never to be forgotten dive adventure.
19. When the sun goes down, those seeking romance can watch the city lights twinkle and palm trees sway in the cool evening breeze. Gaze at the Caribbean moon or dance the night away with that special someone on either of our beautiful islands.
20. Sample CSR, a locally produced cane spirit mixed with Ting, to get the real 'Ting with a Sting'. Or have some fun, order a 'Bling' (Brinley, lime, and Ting), or a 'Bling – Bling' for a drink twice as strong.
21. Be the first to get married barefooted in the sand at Christophe Harbour, a 2500 acre high end development on the Southeast Peninsula. The gorgeous views to Nevis make this area perfect for romance.
22. To see the rich variety of vibrant colours and beautiful landscapes, as portrayed through various art pieces at Spencer Cameron Gallery.
23. For the pulsating rhythms at the annual St. Kitts Music Festival, which is now recognized as a primary event on the international music calendar, attracting performers of various music genres.
24. To visit Sunshine's and drink that Killer Bee cocktail you keep hearing about.
25. To partake in the Nevis International Culinary Heritage Exposition (NICHE), held annually in October for the most exquisite cuisine. A weekend celebration of food wine and Caribbean culture set in the tranquil beauty of Nevis.
26. At the Hermitage, guests say that the past comes to life. The dining room - The Great House, is the oldest wooden house on Nevis dating to 1670.
27. To take in a game of international cricket at the newly rebuilt Warner Park Stadium. Or watch athletes compete at the brand new Silver Jubilee Athletic Stadium.
28. Nestled between the Caribbean Sea and Atlantic Ocean, the 18 hole Thomas McBroom designed, Royal St. Kitts Golf Course awaits you.
29. The Golden Lemon Inn on St. Kitts dates back to 1610. It was built by the Huguenots, and is the oldest occupied residence on the island.
30. Go 'liming' in a local club, take part in a karaoke night and experience the connection you feel when you mingle with locals in a lighthearted, relaxed atmosphere.
31. Be entertained by Mansion Bull, Clowns, Mocko-Jumbies, and Masquerades in the National Carnival Parade, or 'jam' to the sweet sounds of local bands on J'ouvert morning on December 26th.

32. The 35 acres of rolling lawns and gardens at Ottley's Plantation Inn offer breathtaking views of the Atlantic Ocean.
33. To explore the Nevis beaches that you did not have enough time for on your last cruise.
34. Sample various seafood dishes at a variety of restaurants in the Frigate Bay area.
35. The rainforest hike is a great opportunity to see green vervet monkeys, hummingbirds, and giant river crayfish.
36. Visit the historical site of the Bath Hotel. Built in 1778, this playground for the rich and famous who visited Nevis, offers spring water, known to have cured chronic rheumatism and gout.
37. Port Zante, the cruise ship terminal is best described as a sprawling jewel box of a mall. It offers an array of handsome shops catering to every pocketbook and taste.
38. The Circus is Basseterre's primary landmark. It is a roundabout that creates an interesting focal point, with its green clock tower built in 1883 as a memorial to a local planter and politician of the era.
39. Romney Manor, the home of Caribelle Batik was once owned by the great-great grandfather of the president of the United States. Today, artisans at the batik factory provide live demonstrations of the complicated process of turning Sea Island Cotton into colourful batiks.
- 40. Because everything you heard from your friends about St. Kitts and Nevis is true!